

Mission - The Hellertown Area Library promotes life-long learning by providing free and equal access to quality resources and collections.

Vision - The Hellertown Area Library engages the community by developing resources and promoting partnership opportunities. We are "more than just books."