

The best place to find information is at your local library. If you cannot make it in, please check out these educational and informational websites that the staff has picked just for you.

50 States - States, capital cities and other fun facts

America's Story - Discover the stories of America's past

Arts Connected - Over 100,000 resources including works of art, texts, audio, video and interactive resources

BAM! - Body and mind information from the Center of Disease Control and Prevention

Bartleby - Free literature including quotes, poems, novels, classics, and more

Cool Math - An amusement park of math and more

Dictionary.com - Online dictionary, thesaurus, flash cards and more

Homework Spot - Homework help for a variety of different subjects, includes external links

National Geographic Kids - Games, photos, articles and more

NIDA for Teens - National Institute on Drug Abuse presents the science behind drug abuse for teens

Science a Go Go - Science news, research tidbits and discussion

Stay Teen - Information about sex, relationships, and contraception for teens

Study Stack - Helpful flashcard study tool

The Why Files - The science behind the news